

Volunteer Application Form

The Parliament of the World's Religions is gathering in Toronto, Canada on November 1st through November 7th for the 2018 Parliament of the World's Religions. Volunteers are needed starting immediately to assist now and during the event. Please identify an area that you could lend the best service and we will do our best to slot you and/or place you with the appropriate committee. This is an exciting opportunity to stretch your worldview, to work with people of a variety of cultures and religious and spiritual traditions, to be a part of making something significant happen that can move us towards a more just, peaceful and sustainable world. Volunteers will be provided special training and orientation to the mission and goals of the Parliament, and to the event itself. Please contact (insert main contact name and email) for questions or concerns. Please fill out this form to volunteer leading up to and during the Parliament. Minimum time commitment is 15 hours per week in Toronto or indicate that you will be available during the 2018 Parliament, November 1-7.
